JOHN MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL

3250 W. Adams Street

Chicago 24, Illinois

Time well spent demands strict adherence to a well organized plan for the future. As you progress along life's journey you will learn that worth-while achievement comes to those favored people who practice this yearbook's theme.

DAVID S. COLE

Each round of the Marshall clock has presumably made you a better member of society and a clearer thinker. If you have also cultivated that repose of mind which braves disappointment and enjoys good fortune, yours have been profitable years.

MARIE GEARY WOOLSEY

MR. GEORGE F. CASSELL

DEDICATION

You are her most beloved alumnus. You sponsored her first yearbook. As teacher, principal, and Superintendent of Schools you have distinguished your Alma Mater, dignified your city, and ennobled her educational system. Cultured, learned, refined you combine the qualities of Bacon's scholar and Newman's gentleman.

Proudly, to you, the acting Superintendent of Schools, Marshall dedicates this Review.

Around the Clock

of a schoolday, we, Marshall Seniors, are engrossed in a full, well rounded program, every hour of which offers new opportunities to make the most of time. Time, the indefinable, the ever fleeting, bids us strive diligently while the hour is at hand, to attain our aspired goals.

Remembering the events that have passed with time, we now turn the pages of this book, living once more the happy hours of our Senior year. This done, we turn our faces to the future, resolving to mark that time well.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Pardon the intrusion,
But I'd like to guide you through
The following departments
Found in the REVIEW.

Tim Time is my name,
And the motto of my rhyme—
"Around the clock at Marshall
Make the most of time."

I—Graduates
The time has come for us
Now to say goodby,
To all that went together
To make up Marshall High.

Teachers, classes, studies,
Assemblies, games, and teas,
Whene'er we think of Marshall
We will think of these.

II—Classes
The time we spent in classrooms
Was time well spent, we know.
The seeds of knowledge sown there
Will reward us as they grow.

III—Clubs
Club-time meant happy times,
On that we are agreed.
The clubs supplied activities
That all of us did need.

IV—Sports
The thrill-packed moments in sports
Brought cheers from those who came
To see their Marshall, win or lose,
Playing a good, clean game.

MR. MAHLON MOULDS

In June 1947, Mr. Mahlon Moulds graduated from the Marshall faculty. For 22 continuous years he taught at Marshall as instructor in the Art Department. His personal charm and cultured ideals are precious memories.

MRS. ESTELLA ALEXANDER

Graduating from the English faculty in January, 1947, Mrs. Estella Alexander completed 20 years of devoted service. For a time she directed the attendance office, handling truency with sympathy and understanding. She was a gifted teacher and friend.

MRS. BERNICE MacCALLUM

Mrs. Bernice MacCallum who advised the January and June graduates, thought that the Senior luncheons were highlights in the activities of the Year.

PHYS. ED.
Boys

Out of high school,
into a job.
Miss Gertrude Quinn was the person to see for assistance
in just such a plan.

Truancy doesn't pay.
Mr. Meyer Halushka reminded those who needed reminding.

Mrs. Esther Cohn supervised and recorded the results of various I.Q.
and scholarship exams.

Oh, how we ate,
And danced with glee,

While our faculty guests,
Enjoyed the gaiety.

Is that a fire? Let's take a look,
Well what do you know, They're burning my book.

You got the ball, Well let it go,
Will it be good? We'd like to know.

These are the people selected by you,
To run in the finals of the Who's Who.

Brother, believe me, this is no hunch,
My stomach tells me it's time for lunch.

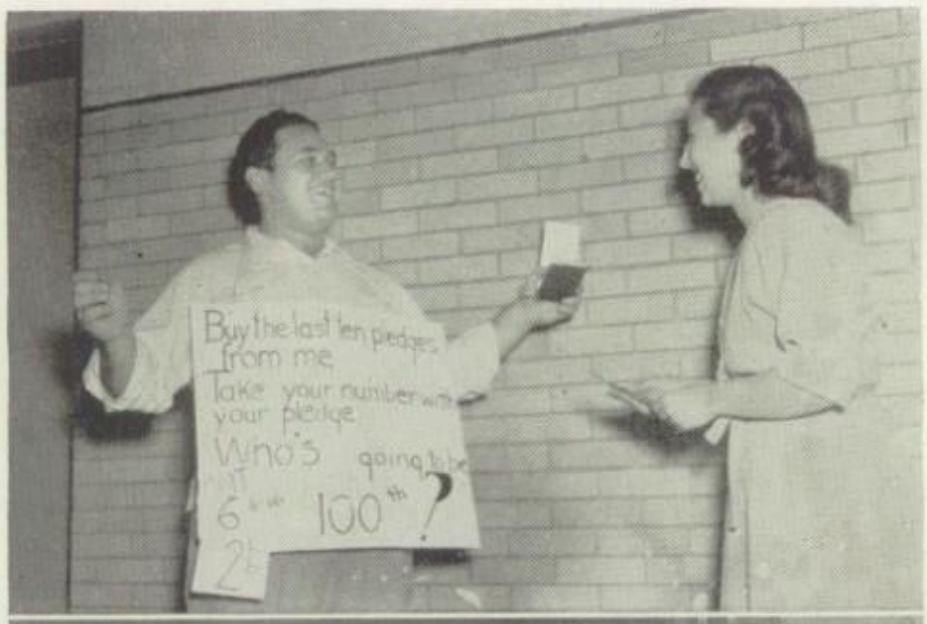
The Potato Bake picnic,
In the month of November,
Was quite a day,
For us seniors to remember.

The attraction of the day,
Was the kiss-hunt, you know,
With a king and queen,
Who stole the show.

Tighten up my skates,
Was the general call,
And only Heaven knows,
For whom I shall fall.

Illinois, Northwestern, and Herzl,
Are choices of many, they say,
When students get together,
On good Old College Day.

Listen my children and you shall hear,
About one of the dances of the year,
Tom Turkey Turnout was the name,
Those that were there were glad that they came.

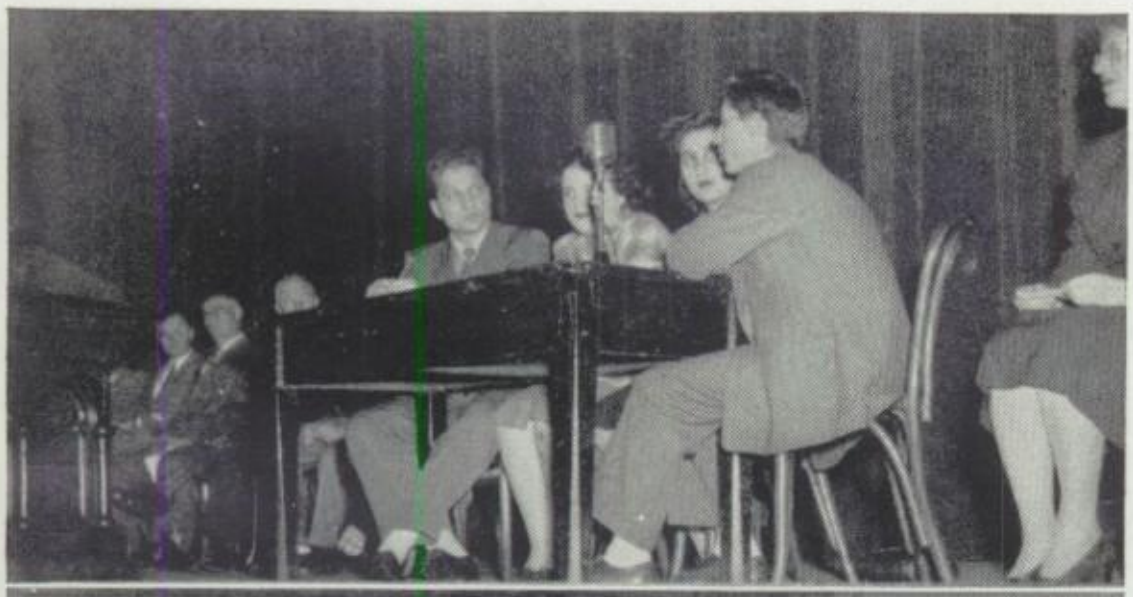


For your pledge I'm a pledgin',
How about buying a Prom bid?
We need you and your money,
Is it a deal, kid?

Bow Day presented a beautiful scene,
Colors galore of bright red, blue, and green.

First measure them up, to get into the mood,

Then a dash into Ben's, For a bit of fine food.



These are the victors,
Of the Volleyball Game,
It's easy to see,
It brought glory and fame.

One look seniors and you shall see,
That it's time to close our fantasy,
Here's a dance the last of the call,
We hate to leave, but time beckons all.

Here comes "Butch"
Most athletic boy
While Wassy, the Campus Character
Radiates joy

Following true is Margolith
With her artistry fine
While class actor Bernie
Gives with a Shakespearean line

The delegates are in a mess
Getting ballots for you
You have to have a ballot, or
You just can't tell "Who's WHO."

Up with your noses
For you're a Je Revien
Remember that today
You don't speak to men.

Christmas comes but once a year
So everyone dance and sing and cheer.

Seniors, seniors
Seniors galore
Dance and be merry
That's what the music's for.

Turnabout and hail the king
As males smile with joy
For they with the king share the throne
As tonight the girl courts the boy.

The swing band has something here
Which beats the bunny hug
They pass out scissors to the crowd
And watch them cut a rug.

From the mixer we have here
The King and Queen of the 4B Year

Stand erect in columns of four
And forward march for a fire drill chore.

When the REVIEW'S work is over
These boys are ill at ease
For every time they try to sleep
They keep mumbling "SMILE PLEASE."

BULLETIN NO. 48 MARCH 25, 1947

CONGRATULATIONS and appreciation to Miss Lord and the participants in the National Honor Society Assembly of March 20th. The quiet dignity and scholarly atmosphere of the program was most gratifying. The attitude of the audience was a tribute to these outstanding students. Again Marshall is proud!

CLASSES

Our Senior year revolved around our classes. We look back on them now and remember the topics we prepared for round table discussions; the tests we took that had us knitting our eyebrows and wracking our brains; the bright thought we had that brought interest to the class and satisfaction to ourselves. All these were part of our classroom study and all of them added to our lives and our personalities. It was time well spent.

The following pictures were taken informally, while the classes were in regular session.

On page 74 the first picture is a senior art class. The second is an English class and the third is Mrs. MacCallum's U. S. history class.

The first picture on page 75 is Mrs. Ferrell's special U. S. history class, the second is Miss Blade's steno and transcription class, and the third is a chemistry class.

On Page 76, the first picture is Mrs. Ferrell's special U. S. history class, the second is an economics class, and the third is an English literature class.

The first picture on page 77 is a home management class, the second is Mr. Saffir's chemistry class, and the third is an English class.

"M" CLUB

The "M" Club is one of the most highly regarded organizations at Marshall. It boasts of 35 members and 410 alumni.

Membership in the "M" Club is awarded only to those boys who have earned their "M"; received at least a "G" rating in scholarship; and have undergone an initiation period as a "pot."

The "M" Club room is very popular with the members who can be found there listening to the radio, playing records, studying, or reading books. The Samuel's Room is beautifully furnished and provides real comfort for the boys.

The February officers were Donald Schwartz, president; Seymour Fox, vice-president; and Herman Batko, secretary-treasurer.

The June officers were Seymour Fox, Irving Cohen, Jerry Friedman, and Bernard Becker, who held the positions of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively.

Row 1: Becker, Bemoras, Casciaro, Pitts, Friedman, Batko, Fox, Schwartz, Rosenshine, Viner, Manushkin, Greenberg.
Row 2: Portnoy, Freeman, Zeman, Kaufman, Bryant, Bolotin, Oster, Ramis, Reid, Evnin, Mages, Spungen, Lieberman, Marks, Golden, Hansfield, Kohn, Chinskey, Berland.
Row 3: Pinsky, Weiss, Gantman, Landerman, Phillips, Weinberg, Nelson, Rabinovitz, Lance, Green, Mendelssohn, Cohen, Demsetz, Dubow, Kolton, Block, Bass, Levin, Chinskey.

The "M" Club Alumni Games marked the return of many of Marshall's great basketball stars. The first game of the double header pitted the Juniors against the Seniors, and the nightcap featured the older alumni and those who had more recently graduated.

In the Junior-Senior tilt, the towering Seniors outscored the Juniors 56 to 38, and the second game resulted in a 43 to 35 victory for the older alumni.

ROTC OFFICERS' CLUB

The ROTC Officers Club is the pride of the Marshall ROTC unit. Commissioned officers in their senior year are adjudged as to character, leadership, and scholarship pending their admission to the club. Membership in this organization is the ambition of most cadets.

Capt. Howard Leibach, Maj. Bill Gross, Capt. Everett Miller, Lt. Louis Carnevali, were president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, respectively, during the January semester.

Maj. Bill Gross, Capt. George Meessmann, Capt. Howell Glicken, and Capt. Louis Carnevali, were president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, during the June semester.

The Marshall ROTC unit under the leadership of these officers has earned an Honor School Rating. The cadets, therefore, have drilled and worked hard in order that they might maintain this high standard.

COLOR GUARDS
Gross, Meyers, Skyer, Kopin, Hirsch.

JUNIORS

Marshall's Junior Commandos are again Public League Champions. They went off to a slow start, losing three practice games, but proved their skill in the play-off games, winning their sixth championship in the last eight years. The "ponies," playing headsup ball all the time defeated South Shore, Parker, Hyde Park, and then Von Steuben in these playoffs.

SENIORS

The Senior Team finished the season with a fourth place berth in the West Section.

STADIUM GAME

The Public School Junior Basketball League was represented at the Chicago Stadium by Marshall's Junior Commandos, under the direction of coach Ted Perzanowski. This was the Juniors 4th stadium appearance in the Kelly Bowl Game. Playing brilliant basketball the Commandos were, however, defeated by Weber 53 to 35.
